Institutional Examination of Proficiency in English

This Institutional Examination of Proficiency in English is an EFL (English as a Foreign Language) examination which is used as proof of advanced proficiency in the English Language. It serves as evidence of proficiency in English for academic purposes.

This exam was administered to the BECAL scholarship candidates within the frame of agreement of cooperation signed between the CPK and the Instituto AE Internacional.

This Institutional Examination is aimed at the C2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

Student; Alejandro Nicolas Cabral Valdovinos Date: May, 9 - 2023

Area/Total	Points
Speaking & Listening (25)	24
Written Exam (125)	117
TOTAL SCORE (150)	141

SCORE RANGE (0 – 150)

Very Good to Expert User (Nivel Académico)	141 – 150
Good User (Nivel Avanzado)	121 – 140
Competent User (Nivel Intermedio Superior)	98 – 120	(65% passing score)
Modest User (Nivel Intermedio Base)	75 – 97
Elementary User (Nivel elemental)	35 – 74
Basic User (Nivel principiante)	0 - 34

Therefore, test takers of this Institutional Examination are expected to feel confident in the use of abstract ideas and concepts ant they should have a wide ranging and flexible vocabulary as well as a sound grasp of English grammar. Test takers should also be able to understand written materials that are encountered in both general and specialized professional contexts and be able to communicate in standard written English with good expression and accuracy. **********

ORIGINAL